Dear Sponsors and Supporters,

October 2022

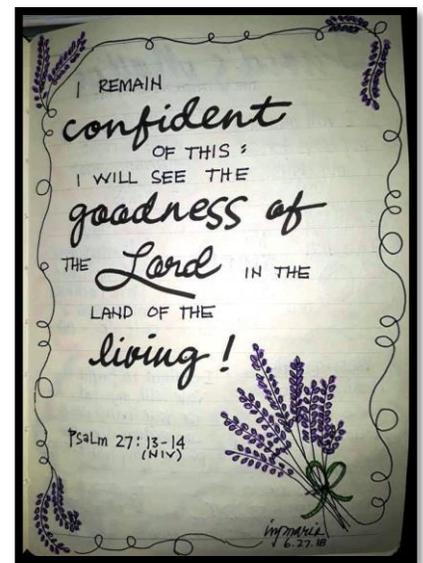

It is my sincere hope that this message finds you well and healthy. It has been several months since my last letter to you, and here are some updates on the Sakila Sponsorship Program.

Your generosity has been amazing. We have raised enough money to buy food for the entire school year with rice, corn, beans, and sunflower seeds (Pressed to make oil). In addition, we have been able to buy food for some of our staff members in need.

Late last year, the Tanzanian Educational Authority announced that all grades from kindergarten to high school, needed to implement a whole new educational curriculum. This news was difficult to hear because it would mean that it would cost $75,000, to replace the entire library of textbooks. As I was sharing this news with some donors, one donor in particular who owns a marketing company, had an idea to host an event through his own contacts. On August 14th, I was invited to this fund-raising event at the T-Mobile stadium in Seattle (Home to Seattle Mariners). At the end of this two-day event, various donors had raised nearly $50,000, for our textbooks. Wow! Our goal of $75,000 is well on its way. We would appreciate your prayers for continued funds to purchase the rest of the textbooks.

Please continue to pray for the drought situation in East Africa. It has worsened in the last month with animals dying, and water being very scarce.

Thank you so much for your continued faithfulness in this partnership. Lord bless you! ~Godwin Selembo~
